

Accession 06-32 Inventory

1 16mm silent film in gray canister, approximately 400 feet. Labeled on leader AReel #1". Scenes of the Carlson family=s departure from the United States and travel to China. Most of the film shows the family traveling via horse and mule via primitive roads to the China-Tibet border. Ca. 1936-1940.

1 16mm silent film in brown canister, approximately 400 feet. Labeled on leader AReel #2". Scenes of the Carlson family traveling through China and Tibet, scenes in various Chinese and Tibetan towns, including Labrang, scenes of Buddhist ceremonies and the Labrang monastery. Ca. 1936-1940

1 Compact Disk labeled AIn China and Tibet 1936-1940 by Edwin Carlson.@ The CD contains most of the two films described above, plus a few photos at the beginning and a narration ca. 2006 by Robert Carlson.

1 notebook containing a copy of a typed manuscript entitled AThe Story of REN / An Ideological Fantasy by Robert B. Ekvall,@ The manuscript is 126 pages, including 3 pages of front material and 24 pages of illustrations. The manuscript has many changes written into it and also many Chinese character drawn onto the page. These changes were made before the manuscript was copied. The illustrations are in sets of three: a caption, a black and white image, a mirror opposite of that image also in black and white. N.d.