

Inventory of Accession 07-25: Papers of Jay Gary, 1980-2001

They are in 33 print folders/files and five folders on disk for scholars who want to research the early history of the AD 2000 history. These archives contain my files from 1988 to 1994 on how the year 2000 animated evangelicals. They cover 4 main areas:

1. GCOWE 2000: Global Consultation on World Evangelization by AD 2000 and Beyond, Jan 5-8, 1989, in Singapore. I served as the consultation director.
2. AD 2000 Global Service Office: the ad hoc continuation of that consultation.
3. AD 2000 & Beyond Movement: early correspondence, and the 1989 split between conservative evangelicals led by Thomas Wang and Luis Bush, and mainstream evangelicals led by the Southern Baptist, Campus Crusade, Pentecostals, Charismatics, and Catholics focused on 2000.
4. Celebration 2000: my work to call the church to mark Christ's 2000th jubilee, including my book papers on _The Star of 2000_ , 1991 to 1997

Collectively these files contains planning documents that relate to the lead up to decade of Evangelism in the 1990s by Evangelicals associated with the Lausanne Committee for World Evangelization, plus the AD 2000 movement.

They contain correspondence with Evangelical mission leaders, including Bill Bright, Ralph Winter, Thomas Wang, Luis Bush, William O'Brien, Leighton Ford, Tom Houston, plus Pentecostal/Charismatic leaders such as Tom Forrest, Vinson Synan, and Tom Pelton.

The print files have folders on:
