

Accession # 95-122, Transcripts of Sermons and Autobiographical Manuscript of David E. Morken, 1993

Four volumes of loose, 8 1/2" x 11" paper, printed on one side, 1014 pages altogether.

Volume One - Transcription of Recounting. Manuscript by David E. Morken, about his family background, youth, education at Life Bible College, missionary work in Sumatra, ministry in California and involvement in Youth for Christ. Manuscript appears to be based to some extent on tapes by Morken, with comments by his first wife Helen Mitchell Morken, and members of their family and on family letters diaries and other documents and on Morken's and others' written recollections. Original tapes upon which this manuscript is partially based made at different times, some made no later than 1983. Manuscript prepared ca. 1993, covers 1910-1949. 229 pages, plus title page and table of contents.

Volume Two - Transcription of Recounting. Manuscript by David E. Morken about travels around the world for Youth for Christ, serving as YFC representative in China until 1950, ministry in Japan, Hong Kong and other parts of Asia. Includes description of Morken's assistance in various Billy Graham Evangelistic campaigns. Manuscript appears to be based to some extent on tapes by Morken, with comments by his first wife Helen Mitchell Morken, and members of their family and on family letters diaries and other documents and on Morken's and others' written recollections. Original tapes upon which this manuscript is partially based made at different times, some made no later than 1983. Manuscript prepared ca. 1993, covers 1947-1962. 263 pages (numbered 230-492), plus title page and table of contents.

Volume Three - Transcription of Recounting. Manuscript by David E. Morken about the Morken family's return to the United States in 1962, his ministry and travels to Asia on many occasions and other evangelistic activities. Manuscript appears to be based to some extent on tapes by Morken, with comments by his family members and on family letters diaries and other documents and on Morken's and others' written recollections. Original tapes upon which this manuscript is partially based made at different times. Manuscript prepared ca. 1993, covers 1962-1993. 254 pages (numbered 493-746), plus title page and table of contents.

Transcripts of Sermons. Transcripts of sermons and speeches given by Morken on Biblical themes, some of the sermons being ones he gave at the weddings of his children. Sermons and speeches were originally given in 1951, 1952, 1975, 1980-1984, 1987, 1990-1992. Transcript was apparently prepared in 1993. 254 pages